

FAME Executive Director Profile

Spiritual Qualifications:

The successful candidate will have:

- Evidence of a love for God and His people
- A clear call to ministry
- A growing relationship with Jesus Christ
- A character that is above reproach
- A positive reputation
- Displays a spirit of humility
- Active participant in a local Christian Church

Professional Qualifications:

The successful candidate will have:

- Leadership experience in a church or other faith-based non-profit
- Experience in leading and managing staff and volunteers
- Experience in public relations, marketing and fundraising
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills with diverse groups
- The ability to preach / speak in front of large and small groups
- Financial acumen to include budgeting, managing a multi-million dollar budget, working with accountants and auditors.
- The ability to think strategically and analytically
- The ability to create and cast vision to board, staff and constituents
- Willingness to be directed by a governing board

Personal Qualifications:

The successful candidate will have:

- A healthy marriage and family life, where applicable
- Solid personal finances
- A strong work ethic
- Availability and willingness to travel extensively, both domestic and internationally. The current Executive Director travels approx. 120 days per year.
- Bachelor's degree or higher in related field is required. A graduate degree is preferred.
- Excellent people skills
- A heart and passion for missions
- The highest standards of integrity and ethics.
- Technology skills